Webinar Timeline

Time	Item/Topic	Speaker
9:02-9:15	Need to develop health systems which encompass all aspects of care for children with cancer. Reflections on experiences of building and strengthening pediatric palliative care with the Sunflower Children's Program in South and Southeast Asia.	Megan Doherty Pediatric Palliative Care Specialist, Ottawa, Canada Program Director, Pediatric Palliative Care Program Two Worlds Cancer Collaboration
9:15-9:43	Panel Discussion: Experiences from India, Nepal and the Philippines Panelists: Dr. Spandana Rayala, Pediatric Palliative Care Specialist, Kuwait Development of Specialist/Fellowship training programs in Hyderabad, innovations of using virtual training combined with in person clinical experiences. Dr. Gayatri Palat, Professor, Pain and Palliative Medicine, Hyderabad, India Examples from India, how to develop comprehensive services for children with life-limiting conditions, in all locations. Overcoming challenges of delivering care at home, hospice, hospital and in rural areas by listening and responding to local needs. Dr. Sudhir Sapkota and/or Prof Bishnu Paudel (Nepal). Example from Nepal of the development of a supportive model of pediatric oncology and palliative care services in Nepal and specifically at Kanti Children's Hospital, using a tertiary children's hospital as a hub and the role of Project ECHO (virtual training and mentoring program) to support other locations of care. Dr. Liza Marie Naranjo The development of pediatric palliative care in the Philippines, including the importance of international partnerships and	 Dr. Spandana Rayala, Pediatric Palliative Care Specialist, Kuwait Pediatric Palliative Care Program Two Worlds Cancer Collaboration Dr. Gayatri Palat, Professor, Pain and Palliative Medicine, Hyderabad, India Prof. Bishnu Dutta Paudel, Executive Director, Bhaktapur Cancer Hospital, Nepal Dr. Sudhir Sapkota, Pediatric Oncology and Palliative Care Physician, Kanti Children's Hospital, Nepal Dr. Liza Marie Naranjo, Pediatric Oncologist, training programs, building local capacity to deliver training.	National Children's Hospital, Quezon City, Philippines

9:43-9:50	Reflections on Lessons learned from panelists: How we can leverage training, international partnerships, online mentoring and capacity building to create stronger health systems to comprehensively address the care needs of children with cancer in LMICs.	Simon Sutcliffe, President, Two Worlds Cancer Collaboration, Canada
9:50-10:00	Audience Interaction and Questions		