ONCO HUB

London Global Cancer Week at 4pm – 8 pm GMT on Thursday 17 November

Cancer Care During War – Ukrainian Prospective

Section I War challenges. Andriy Beznosenko (Chair of Ukrainian Society of Clinical Oncology) Moderator (4pm-6pm)

1. President Volodymyr Zelensky or Viktor Lyashko (Minister of Health care of Ukraine)

2. Viacheslav Kopetskyi (Surgical oncologist, National cancer institute)
   Coping with war challenges in highly specialized surgical department

3. Olga Bublieva (gynecologic oncologist, National cancer institute)
   Gynecological care in a Time of War

4. Prof.Iryna Kryachok, MD (Chief of Oncohematology department in National Cancer Institute)
   Priorities and logistics for patients with hematological malignancies in the hot spot, because of war

5. Yulia Nogovitsyna (Program Director, Tabletochki Charity Foundation)
   Response to russian aggression in childhood cancer in Ukraine

6. Veronika Patsko (clinical oncologist, National cancer institute)
   Clinical trials when the whole country is a battlefield

7. Anna Uzlova (CEO/Co-founder Charity Foundation Inspiration Family).
   Ukrainian cancer patients treatment during the War: retrospective and perspective

8. Prof. Richard Sullivan (Institute of Cancer Policy, Global Oncology Group, Conflict & Health Research Group, King's College London, United Kingdom)
   Radiotherapy: old problems in a new realities

Section II Education and research Oleksandr Stakhovskyi Moderator (6pm-7pm)

1. Prof. Pawel Kalinski (Roswell Park Comprehensive Cancer Center. Chair, Department of Immunology. Professor of Oncology. Chief, Translational Immuno-Oncology).
   Multi-Institutional Clinical Trials of Cancer Immunotherapies: Challenges and Collaborative Opportunities.

2. Nelya Melnitchouk (MD, MSc Program Director, Colorectal Surgery Fellowship, Harvard Medical School)
   Supporting oncological care in Ukraine at the time of war and beyond

3. Natalia Kovalchuk (Radiation Oncology. Clinical Associate Professor. Stanford University)
   Research and postdoc possibilities for next generation oncologists in Ukraine

4. Prof.Yuryi Kuchin (MD, Professor of Anaesthesiology. Rector of National Medical University)
   Priorities of medical education during wartime

Section III Friends of Ukraine. Yuriy Kondratskyi Moderator (7pm-8pm)

1. Grygoriy Lapshyn (head of transplantology department, The University Medical Center Schleswig-Holstein)
   Organizing help for Ukraine in peace and wartime, experience of one German clinic

2. Horia Vulpe (MD, CM, Radiation Oncologist. Cancer Program Director. Queens Cancer Center, Honolulu, HI)
   Major oncological challenges during war in Ukraine inside from foreign observer

3. Bjorn Blucher (Editor-in-chief, 4 open by EDP Sciences, Johannes Gutenberg-University Maintz, Germany)
   Support Science and Education of Ukrainian Colleagues and Medical Students

4. Gennady Bratslavsky (MD, SUNY Upstate Medical University, Professor and Chair of Urology, Syracuse, NY)
   Support of Ukraine from a Kyiv born urologist in practice

5. Roman Gregg (President of Ukrainian Medical Association of the UK)
   Fundraisers and humanitarian help to Ukrainian hospitals in wartime by the UK