International Agency for Research on Cancer
World Health Organization

IAEA International Atomic Energy Agency
Atoms for Peace

World Health Organization

London Global Cancer Week

Monday, 14 November 2022

Horizon in Cancer Control: Data, Research & Innovation

Perspective of UN Agencies

Final Agenda

Time (GMT)	Topic	Facilitators
10.00 – 11.00	Perspectives from UN Agencies
10.00 – 10:02	Welcome and introduction	Dr Slim Slama, Unit Head, WHO HQ
10.02 – 10.12	Cancer centres: WHO-IAEA guidance	Dr May Abdel-Wahab, IAEA NAHU Director
10.12 – 10.22	Access to cancer medicines: A paradigm shift with end-to-end support	Dr Bente Mikkelsen, WHO NCD Director
10.22 – 10:32	Rays of Hope: a new model of partnership and implementation	Dr Lisa Stevens, IAEA PACT Director
10.32 – 10:42	Precision cancer prevention: is it possible and how?	Dr Partha Basu, IARC
10.42 – 10:58	Q&A: Empowering countries through multi-sectoral partnerships	Dr Slim Slama, (moderated discussion)
10.58 – 11.00	Closing remarks	Dr Slim Slama (moderator)
11.00 – 11.10	Mobility Break

11.10 – 12.35	Technological innovation: *what is in the pipeline and how to measure value?
11.10 – 11.15	Welcome and Introductions	Dr Lamia Mahmoud (moderator)
11.15 – 11.25	Emerging technologies in radiotherapy: Applications in weaker health systems?	Dr Marcos Santos, President, ALATRO
11.25 – 11.35	New Data systems Improving data capture, role of AI	Mr Farshad FARZADFAR, WHO
11.35 – 11.50	Open, participatory discussion Share example of sustained leapfrog technology	Dr Lamia Mahmoud (moderator)
11.50 – 12.00	Pipeline analysis for childhood cancer medicines Is it meeting the needs of global communities	Dr Jessica Boklan
12.00 – 12.10	AI in telepathology How far are we from scale?	Dr Dan Milner
12.10 – 12.25	Open, participatory discussion What technologies are you hopeful about?	Dr Lamia Mahmoud (moderator)
12.25 – 12.35	Mobility Break

International Agency for Research on Cancer
World Health Organization

IAEA International Atomic Energy Agency
Atoms for Peace

World Health Organization

London Global Cancer Week

Monday, 14 November 2022

Horizon in Cancer Control: Data, Research & Innovation

Perspective of UN Agencies

12.35 – 13.30	Social innovation: *bringing communities to the fore in cancer control
12.40 – 12.45	Welcome and introductions	Ms Mame-Yaa Bosomtwi (moderator)
12.45 – 12.55	Creating an agenda that is person-centred Capturing the lived experience	Ms Clarissa Schilstra
12.55 – 13.05	Patient navigation: New ways of reaching communities	Dr Peter Vuylsteke
13.05 – 13.15	National Cancer Control Plans: best practices in community engagement	Dr Ali Motlagh - Ministry of Health of Iran
13.15 – 13.30	Open, participatory discussion How can we drive social innovation	Ms Mame-Yaa Bosomtwi (moderator)
13.30 – 13.40	Mobility Break

13.40 – 14.30	Organizational innovation: *reducing inequalities through local leadership
13.40 – 13.45	Session introduction	Dr Sonali Johnson (UICC)
13.45 – 13.55	Improving quality of care using facility-based partnerships	Dr Julie Gralow, ASCO
13.55 – 14.05	Cancer centre networks to promote best practices	Dr Isabelle Villadary, SANOFI
14.05 – 14.15	Platforms for measuring local impact: databases to reduce inequalities	Dr Nickhill Bhakta, St.Jude
14.15 – 14.25	Open, participatory discussion How can we amplify organizational innovation	Dr Sonali Johnson (moderator)
14.25 – 14.30	Mobility Break

14.30 – 15.00	Final session: *opening a new chapter in cancer control
14.30 – 14.40	Defining global research agenda	Dr CS Pramesh (moderator)
14.40 – 14.50	Rare cancers: an emerging opportunity	Prof. Paolo Casali, ESMO
14.50 – 14.55	Summary and closure	Dr Ben Anderson, WHO HQ